The Honorable Earl Blumenauer
US House of Representatives
2267 Rayburn House Office Building
Washington, DC 20515

Dear Congressman Earl, Blumenauer:

Your colleague John Lewis is correct:

"In matters of foreign policy, violence and war is obsolete."

The leadership wants you to vote for the funding bill up for consideration and progressive groups that I admire are lining up in support.

But if we are truly going to bring this immoral and failed war to a conclusion the bill must fail. I know saying that is against the grain but what is required in this moment of history is boldness.

The vote on Thursday may well turn out to be just as important as the original vote giving the president authority to invade.

Your fellow Oregonian,

The Rev. Chuck Currie

*Earl,
You were great at the rally on Sunday!
